On a hill far away stood an old rugged cross,
the emblem of suffering and shame;
and I love that old cross where the dearest and best for a world of lost sinners was slain.

O that old rugged cross, so despised by the world,
has a wondrous attraction for me;
for the dear Lamb of God left his glory above to bear it to dark Calvary.

So I'll cherish the old rugged cross, till my trophies at last I lay down;
I will cling to the old rugged cross,
and exchange it some day for a crown.
